No-fly zone for Libya should not be ruled out

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s)	The Sydney Morning Herald editorial board
Source	The Sydney Morning Herald
Date	March 7, 2011
URL	http://www.smh.com.au/opinion/editorial/nofly-zone-for-libya-should-not-be-ruled-out-20110306-1bjju.html
Quote	“The Libyan people are liberating themselves, and the appearance of US or other Western forces in the country would only give the Gaddafi regime a propaganda victory, for it would be portrayed as another stage in the history of Western colonialism in the Middle East. Imposing a flight-exclusion zone need not have that consequence and may prove to be the only means of stopping the regime from committing atrocities against its own people.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item takes a mixed stance on the position United States should impose a no-fly zone on the topic 2011 Libyan uprising.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=No-fly_zone_for_Libya_should_not_be_ruled_out&oldid=14130"

This page was last edited on March 13, 2011, at 18:05.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.