

...True to forms

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Pittsburgh Tribune-Review editorial board

Source Pittsburgh Tribune-Review

Date June 19, 2010

URL http://www.pittsburghlive.com/x/pittsburghtrib/opinion/s_686731.html

Quote

“Tucked stealthily into the 2,400-page health-reform law is a punishing tax-filing mandate that has nothing to do with medical care but is sure to make business owners sick to their stomachs. The law vastly expands the requirements for businesses to report virtually all payments for goods and services. What's this doing in health-care legislation? Why, to raise revenues to offset its gargantuan cost, of course.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Act should not have been passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=...True_to_forms&oldid=12211"

This page was last edited on June 21, 2010, at 02:39.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.