A Romney court would set back the clock

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s)	Tampa Bay Times editorial board
Source	Tampa Bay Times
Date	November 5, 2012
URL	http://www.tampabay.com/opinion/editorials/a-romney-court-would-set-back-the-clock/1259611
Quote	66 Romney's judicial picks would be out of touch with the values of most Americans. They would likely set back the rights of women, side with states that want to interfere with minority voting rights, allow more taxpayer money to fund religious activities, protect polluters and shut the courthouse door to little-guy consumers, workers and gays seeking equal rights.

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Obama should be elected on the topic United States presidential election, 2012.

This item argues against the position Romney should be elected on the topic United States presidential election, 2012.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=A_Romney_court_would_set_back_the_clock&oldid=16162"

This page was last edited on November 7, 2012, at 01:04.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.