

A harvest of disgrace

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Economist editorial board

Source The Economist

Date September 22, 2008

URL http://www.economist.com/world/unitedstates/displaystory.cfm?story_id=11412562

Quote

“ IF YOU measure the success of a pressure group by its ability to cram lousy policy through Congress, you might imagine that Big Oil or Wall Street would top the league: they are the lobbies most berated on the campaign trail. You would be wrong. If there were any doubt, the past few days should have confirmed that America's farmers are the capital's handout kings.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Bill should be passed on the topic 2007 U.S. Farm Bill.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=A_harvest_of_disgrace&oldid=8124"

This page was last edited on September 30, 2008, at 10:44.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.