

Amnesty would be foreign to founders

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) James Pinkerton

Source Newsday

Date June 28, 2007

URL <http://www.newsday.com/news/opinion/ny-oppin285272125jun28,0,5742982.column>

Quote

“ The nation's founders thought that the people should rule, which is why the Constitution begins with "We the People." Inherent in the idea was that "the people" would be a coherent group, with a common language and culture - the Constitution was written only in English. Mindful of history, the founders thought that each people ought to have their own state.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Comprehensive Immigration Reform Act of 2007.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Amnesty_would_be_foreign_to_founders&oldid=6062"

This page was last edited on June 28, 2007, at 10:58.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.