

Congress, priorities and power shifts

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Miami Herald editorial board

Source The Miami Herald

Date November 16, 2006

URL <http://www.miami.com/mld/miamiherald/news/opinion/16023399.htm>

Quote

“U.S. trade and investment in the Andean region create jobs that offer alternatives to growing coca and exporting narcotics to the United States. Such jobs can help counter the anti-capitalist pull of Venezuela's Hugo Chávez and his partners. If Congress turns away from free trade, U.S. industry will lose ground in the region to China and other Southeast Asian nations.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Agreement should be ratified on the topic Colombia-United States Free Trade Agreement.

This item argues for the position Agreement should be ratified on the topic Peru-United States Free Trade Agreement.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Congress,_priorities_and_power_shifts&oldid=4688"

This page was last edited on March 11, 2007, at 11:01.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.