

Fear of health 'reform' is warranted

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The San Diego Union-Tribune editorial board

Source The San Diego Union-Tribune

Date November 5, 2009

URL <http://www.signonsandiego.com/news/2009/nov/05/fear-health-reform-warranted/>

Quote

“The claim that a vast expansion of the federal role in health care could save money is largely based on the preposterous assumption that hundreds of billions of dollars would be cut in Medicare and Medicaid programs. A law on the books already requires Congress to contain Medicare spending. Each year, Congress refuses to implement this law. Now it would go after Medicare on a far bigger scale? Of course not.”

”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Fear_of_health_'reform'_is_warranted&oldid=11306"

This page was last edited on March 11, 2010, at 14:32.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.