

Hamas' absurd claims of victory

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Steve Huntley

Source Chicago Sun-Times

Date August 6, 2014

URL <http://www.suntimes.com/news/huntley/29090933-452/hamas-absurd-claims-of-victory.html>

Quote

“ It was a ground war Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu didn't want but fought with skill and care to try to avoid civilian casualties. The civilian deaths and injuries that did occur were the sole responsibility of Hamas' total disregard for the safety of the people it ruled. Indian and French television outlets have broadcast video of Hamas terrorists setting up rocket launchers in a civilian neighborhood. Israeli troops told the Jerusalem Post of rocket launch tripods found in school playgrounds and anti-tank weapons in children's bedrooms, of homes wrecked by Hamas booby traps and of strikes canceled to protect civilian lives. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Israel was justified in its actions on the topic Operation Protective Edge.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Hamas'_absurd_claims_of_victory&oldid=17767"

This page was last edited on August 13, 2014, at 16:32.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.