

Health Care Horror Hooey

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Paul Krugman

Source The New York Times

Date February 23, 2014

URL http://www.nytimes.com/2014/02/24/opinion/krugman-health-care-horror-hooey.html?_r=0

Quote

“ Even supporters of health reform are somewhat surprised by the right’s apparent inability to come up with real cases of hardship. Surely there must be some people somewhere actually being hurt by a reform that affects millions of Americans. Why can’t the right find these people and exploit them? The most likely answer is that the true losers from Obamacare generally aren’t very sympathetic. For the most part, they’re either very affluent people affected by the special taxes that help finance reform, or at least moderately well-off young men in very good health who can no longer buy cheap, minimalist plans. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should not have been passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Health_Care_Horror_Hooey&oldid=17324"

This page was last edited on February 27, 2014, at 05:03.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.