

Health Care Nightmares

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Paul Krugman

Source The New York Times

Date April 10, 2014

URL <http://www.nytimes.com/2014/04/11/opinion/krugman-health-care-nightmares.html>

Quote

“ Let’s start with the good news about reform, which keeps coming in. First, there was the amazing come-from-behind surge in enrollments. Then there were a series of surveys — from Gallup, the Urban Institute, and RAND — all suggesting large gains in coverage. Taken individually, any one of these indicators might be dismissed as an outlier, but taken together they paint an unmistakable picture of major progress. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should not have been passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Health_Care_Nightmares&oldid=17443"

This page was last edited on April 11, 2014, at 17:49.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.