

Hold Bush to the Law in Terror-Suspect Cases

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Seattle Times editorial board
Source The Seattle Times
Date September 8, 2006
URL http://www.sltrib.com/opinion/ci_4307710

Quote “On Wednesday in a speech in which the president admitted the existence of secret CIA prisons overseas, Bush asked Congress to fight terrorism on his terms. Those means and methods have been repudiated by the U.S. Supreme Court and legions of civil and military legal experts.” ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Military Commissions Act of 2006.

This item argues for the position Competing Graham-McCain-Warner bill should be passed on the topic Military Commissions Act of 2006.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Hold_Bush_to_the_Law_in_Terror-Suspect_Cases&oldid=3138"

This page was last edited on September 18, 2006, at 16:17.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.