

How Out of Touch Can A Washington Politician Be?

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) David Sirota

Source The Huffington Post

Date 8/30/2006

URL http://www.huffingtonpost.com/david-sirota/how-out-of-touch-can-a-wa_b_28343.html

Quote

“ Lieberman, of course, wants us to forget about his aggressive support for corporate-written trade deals like NAFTA and China PNTR that have destroyed Connecticut's economy by driving wages, job security and benefits into the ground. He wants us to forget that he co-wrote the legislation authorizing the President to invade Iraq, and that he has used his Senate platform to attack those in Congress who are pushing for an exit strategy from Iraq.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Lieberman should be elected on the topic Connecticut United States Senate election, 2006.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=How_Out_of_Touch_Can_A_Washington_Politician_Be%3F&oldid=3522"

This page was last edited on October 3, 2006, at 18:52.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.