Medicare cuts and other D.C. fairy tales

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) David Gratzer

Source New York Daily News

Date December 3, 2009

URL http://www.nydailynews.com/opinions/2009/12/03/2009-12-03_medicare_cuts_and_other_dc_fairy_tales.html

Quote

"So it's no surprise that the cycle of cuts and reversals has continued with almost comic certainty. In fact, just days ago, the House of Representatives passed a bill reversing Medicare cuts slated for 2010, with White House support. Yet as you read this, President Obama and Democrats in Congress insist they can pay for half of Obamacare's new spending on health care with... you guessed it: future, unspecified, scheduled cuts to Medicare doctors' fees, drug payments and hospital reimbursements."

"

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Medicare_cuts_and_other_D.C._fairy_tales&oldid=11340"

This page was last edited on March 11, 2010, at 14:37.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.