

Obama for president, with reservations

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Democrat and Chronicle editorial board

Source Democrat and Chronicle

Date November 4, 2012

URL <http://www.democratandchronicle.com/article/20121104/OPINION04/311030063/Obama-president-reservations>

Quote

“ Like the country as a whole, the Editorial Board was split, and debated at length before making what was a difficult decision. The president has, in many ways, disappointed those who endorsed his vision for hope and change in 2008. And he has deviated from his stated intention of bringing a new era of cooperation to Washington. The challenges faced by the nation — economic and otherwise — cry out for leadership. Obama must redouble his efforts to be that leader. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Obama should be elected on the topic United States presidential election, 2012.

This item argues against the position Romney should be elected on the topic United States presidential election, 2012.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Obama_for_president,_with_reservations&oldid=16145"

This page was last edited on November 4, 2012, at 17:09.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.