

Obamacare: The time for selling has just begun

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Patrick McIlheran

Source Milwaukee Journal Sentinel

Date March 24, 2010

URL <http://www.jsonline.com/news/opinion/89058092.html>

Quote

“ “The hard sell will be urgent. Obamacare's final shape came from panicky congressional vote-buying, and its 2,700 pages hold lots of undisclosed parts. So no one's quite sure what side effects will kick in or when. One big employer, Caterpillar, reported last week that one odd tax increase in the bill would cost it $100 million in the first year. You can bet its future laid-off employees didn't see that coming.” ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Act should not have been passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Obamacare:_The_time_for_selling_has_just_begun&oldid=11627"

This page was last edited on March 25, 2010, at 14:51.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.