

President Obama, Congress should set health-care reform aside

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Seattle Times editorial board

Source The Seattle Times

Date December 18, 2009

URL http://seattletimes.nwsources.com/html/editorials/2010544086_edit20healthcare.html

Quote

“The public option is in then out; the Medicare buy-in for 55-year-olds is in, then out. When the congressional dance stops, the Senate may have 60 votes, but for what? It will satisfy neither Obama's frugal promise nor progressives' lavish hopes. Already the Democratic Party's former chairman, Howard Dean, says the bill is not worth passing in this form.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=President_Obama,_Congress_should_set_health-care_reform_aside&oldid=11368"

This page was last edited on March 11, 2010, at 14:39.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.