

Review-Journal Endorsement: President of the United States

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Las Vegas Review-Journal editorial board

Source Las Vegas Review-Journal

Date October 3, 2020

URL <https://www.reviewjournal.com/opinion/rj-endorses/review-journal-endorsement-president-of-the-united-states-2137028/>

Quote

“ Credit Mr. Trump’s bold tax and regulatory reforms for helping unleash the nation’s entrepreneurial forces. And for all the chatter on the left about “economic inequality,” a Federal Reserve report published last week reveals that, under Mr. Trump, “families near the bottom of the income and wealth distributions generally continued to experience substantial gains” between 2016 and 2019. The economy under Mr. Trump also produced record low unemployment, particularly for African Americans and Hispanics. Expanding opportunity, not progressive prescriptions of wealth redistribution, remains the key to reducing inequality, and Mr. Trump has delivered in that regard. ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Trump should be elected on the topic 2020 United States presidential election.

This item argues against the position Biden should be elected on the topic 2020 United States presidential election.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Review-Journal_Endorsement:_President_of_the_United_States&oldid=32106"

This page was last edited on October 27, 2020, at 04:16.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.