

Slice the pork from stimulus program

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) The Detroit News editorial board

Source The Detroit News

Date January 28, 2009

URL <http://www.detnews.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=/20090128/OPINION01/901280309/1008>

Quote

“The pork barreling is one reason Americans have grown so cynical about government, and it is one thing Obama has specifically pledged to change. The stimulus package provides an excellent opportunity for him to show he's serious. He ought to send the bill back to the House and demand it be stripped clean of earmarks and repackaged as a strategic spending plan that addresses the goals spelled out by the administration.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=Slice_the_pork_from_stimulus_program&oldid=9085"

This page was last edited on February 12, 2009, at 23:21.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.