"A listing of all commentary written by a specific person, like Paul Krugman or Rich Lowry" has 3 items for Krugman and 7 for Lowry. That's nowhere near accurate; both have written hundreds if not thousands of articles for publication. E.g Krugman writes twice a week as an op-ed columnist for the New York Times (and has done so for several years).

I changed it to "commentary on the site", to prevent misunderstandings. Yaron Koren 21:27, 3 January 2007 (EST)
