The Attorneys Hubbub

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) John Yoo

Source The Wall Street Journal

Date March 22, 2007

URL http://aei.org/publications/filter.all,publD.25831/pub_detail.asp

Quote

"Unless there are more clear facts of interference with prosecutors for partisan purposes, Mr. Gonzales should keep his job. His dismissal wouldn't placate the critics anyway, and probably only whet their appetite for more. &91;...&93; All presidents, regardless of party, need an attorney general and U.S. attorneys who share, rather than ignore, their constitutional, legal and law-enforcement priorities. The Constitution requires no less."

"

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Alberto Gonzales should resign on the topic 2006 Dismissal of U.S. Attorneys controversy.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The Attorneys Hubbub&oldid=5098"

This page was last edited on March 22, 2007, at 22:58.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.