

The Fierce Urgency of Pork

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Charles Krauthammer

Source The Washington Post

Date February 6, 2009

URL <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2009/02/05/AR2009020502766.html>

Quote

“ It's the essential fraud of rushing through a bill in which the normal rules (committee hearings, finding revenue to pay for the programs) are suspended on the grounds that a national emergency requires an immediate job-creating stimulus -- and then throwing into it hundreds of billions that have nothing to do with stimulus, that Congress's own budget office says won't be spent until 2011 and beyond, and that are little more than the back-scratching, special-interest, lobby-driven parochialism that Obama came to Washington to abolish. He said.”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Act should be passed on the topic American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The_Fierce_Urgency_of_Pork&oldid=9023"

This page was last edited on February 6, 2009, at 16:27.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.