The Keystone catechism

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s)	George F. Will
Source	The Washington Post
Date	January 14, 2015
URL	http://www.washingtonpost.com/opinions/george-will-democratic-inanities-about-the-keystone-pipeline/2015/01/14/271d8fe4-9b4d-11e4-bcfb-059ec7a93ddc_story.	.html
Quote	(Chris] Coons cannot believe that, absent Keystone, Canada will leave vast wealth — the world's third-largest proven crude oil reserve, larger than Iran's — untapped. The Canadian oil is going into the international market, and much of it into internal combustion engines around the world, even if this displeases Democratic senators who have demonstrated a willingness to look ludicrous rather than deviate from an especially silly component of today's environmental catechism.	,,

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Pipeline should be built on the topic Keystone XL pipeline.

Retrieved from "https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The_Keystone_catechism&oldid=27905"

This page was last edited on February 26, 2015, at 02:42.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.