

The farm lobby vs. the global warming bill

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Los Angeles Times editorial board

Source Los Angeles Times

Date June 26, 2009

URL <http://www.latimes.com/news/opinion/la-ed-climate26-2009jun26,0,5647633.story>

Quote

“ “If the bill is far from perfect, that doesn't mean it isn't good. It's the first significant attempt by the United States to join other responsible nations that are trying to wean themselves off fossil fuels and build a better future for their children. Its provisions are weak and will be almost unnoticeable at first, but they will strengthen over time, and the framework it creates can be improved on later if it's not producing the intended cuts.” ”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues for the position Act should be passed on the topic American Clean Energy and Security Act.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The_farm_lobby_vs._the_global_warming_bill&oldid=9776"

This page was last edited on July 9, 2009, at 18:00.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.