

The peace has been lost to Israel's military victories

The printable version is no longer supported and may have rendering errors. Please update your browser bookmarks and please use the default browser print function instead.

This is an opinion item.

Author(s) Philip Stephens

Source Financial Times

Date January 8, 2009

URL http://www.ft.com/cms/s/c5cad3f0-dbb-11dd-87dc-000077b07658,Authorised=true.html?_i_location=http://www.ft.com/cms/s/0/c5cad3f0-dbb-11dd-87dc-000077b07658.html

Quote

“ Military victories and land grabs are futile. Security will come only with political resolution. As it happens, these are not my sentiments, though I certainly share them. They were among some valedictory reflections offered by Ehud Olmert, Israel's outgoing prime minister, when he announced his resignation last September.”

”

Add or change this opinion item's references

This item argues against the position Israel was right to attack Gaza on the topic Gaza War.

Retrieved from

"https://discoursedb.org/w/index.php?title=The_peace_has_been_lost_to_Israel's_military_victories&oldid=9906"

This page was last edited on July 14, 2009, at 17:47.

All text is available under the terms of the GNU Free Documentation License.