Quote

“ At the hearing, Mr. Kavanaugh lashed out with a theory that the sexual misconduct allegations were driven by “revenge on behalf of the Clintons and millions of dollars in money from outside left-wing opposition groups.” That is bizarre. But what is chilling is the threat that followed: “What goes around comes around.” It sounded as if he was promising retaliation of his own in the future. How can such a man act as an impartial justice? How can he leave retribution (and paranoia) out of his decisions on the court? ”
